

Matthew King

17 Thacher Street Apt. 2 Boston, MA 02113
Phone: (781-801-6123) E-Mail: mattking21@gmail.com

Objective

To obtain a meaningful internship or career in the field of Criminology and Law, to gain knowledge in the various aspects of the Criminal Justice system, to better determine the path to take in my career.

Experience

YMCA Camp Director The Ponkapoag Outdoor Center	[June 2007 - September 2009]
<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Worked as a sports counselor the first and second summer■ Returned as a Village leader in charge of 50 children, within 2 weeks was promoted to Assistant Camp Director, and a week after that promoted to Camp Director in charge of 170-200 children, and 25 counselors.

Sales Associate Olympia Sports	[September 2005 - August 2007]
<ul style="list-style-type: none">■ Was the only sales associate ever at that location (Canton) to ever receive a one hundred percent rating on the secret shoppers report.

Counselor in Training Sheriff Michael G. Bellotti's Youth Leadership Academy	[Summer 2002]
Joined on volunteer basis helping the counselors perform their duties taking some strain off of their work load.

Education

Suffolk University Sociology Major focus in Criminology and Law	[September 2007 - Currently Attending]
Classes taken include: Sociology of Law, Deviance and Social Control, Intro to Law and the Legal System, Research Methods in Sociology, Sociology of Crime, Criminal Justice Systems and Criminalistics.

Collegiate High School	[September 2003 - June 2007]
-------------------------------	-------------------------------------

Skills

- Lifetime member of Alpha Kappa Delta honor society for sociology majors.
- Great leadership, easily motivates others, excellent listening skills, efficient working alone or with a group very persistent, dependable, ability to multitask.